FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

UPANUP teams up with local company to create more press release samples

Kitchener, Ontario – Upanup has teamed up with Release, Inc. – a local company from Kitchener, Ontario – to increase their press release sample capabilities. The joint venture is a 2 year contract that is slated to commence on February 14, 2021.

Upanup hopes to leverage Release, Inc.’s extensive experience and expertise in creating fake press releases with the goal of enhancing their already robust product demonstrations. Release, inc. sees this partnership as an opportunity to grow their business, while enhancing their position in the fake press release industry – with hopes of extending their product line to fake agendas, meeting minutes and other pretend office documents.

Per John Doe of Upanup: “We love to preach and practice efficiency – and this partnership with Release, Inc. is a great example of this. We look forward to working with their team, and for the chance to take the realism of our product demonstrations to the next level.”
